

Assembler – Steel framing (Factory work) - Wiri, Auckland

(Kiwi Steel Framing Division)

Specialist - steel frames in the construction industry.

- Full time – perm role
- ASAP start
- Great close-knit team culture, great diversity

Seeking physically fit, hands on process operator to be part of a working team that assemble and manufacture steel frames and trusses. Responsible and keen to learn attitude needed!

What you will be doing:

- Assembling steel framing
- Working effectively in a team environment
- Use hand tools
- Loading and unloading deliveries
- Adhering to quality control and ensuring finished product is to our high standards
- Adhering to health and safety regulations

Our ideal candidate will have the following skills/experience:

- Reliable with an exceptional attendance record
- Good physical fitness
- Previous experience using hand tools
- Ideally from assembly, manufacturing environment
- Must have full rights to work in New Zealand
- Be reliable, flexible, and keen to do a variety of work
- A team player and a keen to learn attitude
- Forklift licence is beneficial, but not required
- Be a team player with an approachable and helpful attitude

You will be working with a great team and for a great Company where Health and Safety is a priority. We believe in our people and will do our best to help you develop your skills and career!

About the company:

We are New Zealand owned and operated steel framing company who designs, engineers, and fabricates high quality steel components for new home builds, commercial building developments and apartment blocks